Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.

RE: United States V Walker River Irrigation Dist.,et al.,In Equity No. C-125;Subfile C-125B

I feel that I have no interest in this case. I own a one acre lot with a home on it parcel #001-240 -008-000. I have a well that supply water for my home, garden, trees and lawn other than that I do no irrigation.

There is an irrigation ditch that crosses my property but I have no right to the water that is in it.

The ditch has a deeded easement across my property but I can not use any of the water in it.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Schneider,

I am contacting you regarding the Subject lawsuit. My property is 181 Charley Day Drive, Bridgeport, CA 93517. Its Legal Description is "Twin Lakes Subdivision, Lot 2, Block T". It is Parcel Number 010332010000.

My property is not riparian. I have no water rights. No body of water flows through my property, stands on my property or is adjacent to my property. There are no irrigation or drainage ditches on my property. Given this information, I believed that the Subject lawsuit paperwork was sent to me in error (the paperwork was received in late February after having been misdirected multiple times by the Post Office in the forwarding process). Since I believed the sending of this lawsuit paperwork to be in error, on 3/14/2013 I contacted Ms. Stacey Simon, Assistant County Counsel, Mono County, California. Ms. Simon investigated the matter and on 3/18/2013 informed me that she concluded my property should not have been included in the lawsuit; its inclusion was an error.

Accordingly, I am filing a Disclaimer Of Interest In Water Rights which is Attachment (A). To orient you to my physical property, I am also attaching Attachments (B) through (E). My property is surrounded on all sides by private property owned by others. The only property that is riparian and adjacent to mine in these map views is the property immediately south of mine; it is adjacent to Upper Twin Lake and is owned by Twin Lakes Enterprises.

Attachments (B) and (C) show wide and close views respectively of my property on a Google standard map format; my property location is indicated by the red marker. Attachment (D) shows a hybrid Google satellite/map view of my property with my property again shown by a red marker. Attachment (E) shows an Ersi view of my property compiled from multiple government data bases; my home is the one with the large bright green roof.

Please remove my name and property from the list of parties having an interest in the Subject water rights lawsuit, and also please notify me when this action is completed.

1. I acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons in the action of United States v. Walker River Irrigation District, which is docket number In Equity C-125, Subfile C-125-B, in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada.

2. I have also received a copy of the FIRST AMENDED COUNTERCLAIM OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, the FIRST AMENDED COUNTERCLAIM OF WALKER RIVER PAIUTE TRIBE, the CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER (Apr. 18, 2000), two copies of a NOTICE OF APPEARANCE AND INTENT TO PARTICIPATE, a copy of the ORDER – DISCLAIMER OF INTEREST and related form, a copy of the ORDER REGARDING CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP OF WATER RIGHTS and related form, two copies of this instrument (WAIVER OF SERVICE OF NOTICE IN LIEU OF SUMMONS), and a means by which I can return the signed waiver to you without cost to me.

3. I agree to save the cost to me of service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons and an additional copy of the FIRST AMENDED COUNTERCLAIM OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and the FIRST AMENDED COUNTERCLAIM OF THE WALKER RIVER PAIUTE TRIBE in this lawsuit by not requiring that I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) be served with judicial process in the manner provided by Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.

3. Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.
