Re: United States of America and Walker River Paiute Tribe, Plaintiff-Intervenor, v. Walker River Irrigation District, a corporation, et al, Defendants, and Mineral County, Proposed Plaintiff-Intervenor v. Walker River Irrigation District, a Corporation, et al, Proposed Defendants-In Equity No. C-125-RCJ-WGC Subproceeding: C-125-C

Dear Mr. Herskovits:

Please be advised that this office represents Norman Annett, an individual, who was recently served with numerous documents from your office pertaining to the above-referenced matter in intervention. Please be advised that this office is currently representing Mr. Annett's Trust and other entities his family has an ownership interest in, including Twin Lakes Enterprises, with respect to the underlying action brought by the United States of America and the Walker River Paiute Tribe in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada against the Walker River Irrigation District.

In reviewing the documents that you have sent to Mr. Annett, I note the Order relating to completion of service identifies him, individually, as a proposed defendant. This is somewhat confusing because Mr. Annett has not individually owned water rights pertinent to the Walker River for some time. Instead, I attach hereto the pleading which our office filed on behalf of Mr. Annett and his wife, Kelly J. Annett, as well as the Norman W. & Kellie J. Annett Family Trust regarding the Notice of Change of Ownership of Water Right in that case. This is how any water rights Mr. Annett formerly owned are presently held. If you would like me to prepare a "Notice of Change of Ownership of Water Right" similar to what was done in the underlying action, I would be happy to do so, and to file that with the Court in the subproceeding involving your Complaint in Intervention.

Please contact me to provide direction in this regard. Mr. Annett is certainly willing to accept service of process at this time to avoid any costs your office might otherwise incur effecting service of process. You can serve any formal papers on this office.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Paul J. Anderson
