MINUTE ORDER IN CHAMBERS

On March 10, 2006, the Magistrate Judge entered an Order (#855) denying the Motion (#795) of Joseph and Beverly Landolt to disqualify counsel Gordon DePaoli. On April 5, 2006, the Landolts filed a Notice of Appeal (#858) from the Order (#855) of the Magistrate Judge. On April 6, 2006, we ordered that we would consider the appeal.

The Magistrate Judge is acting in the case on an order of reference from the District Judge made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 636(a). Said statute provides that we may reconsider any pretrial matter referred pursuant to § 636 (A) where it has been shown that the magistrate judge's order is clearly erroneous or contrary to law.

We have reviewed the appellate briefings submitted by the parties and have determined that the magistrate judge's order is not clearly erroneous nor contrary to law. The Landolts have not established that the contested representation is directly adverse to any of DePaoli's clients nor any other basis for finding an ethical breach that would impact the Landolts' interest in a just and lawful determination of their claims.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED that the magistrate judge's order (#855) is affirmed.
