22 I. INTRODUCTION

24 Cross-Defendants David Haight and Tom Reviglio have filed a Motion to Modify Case
25 Management Order (the "Motion"). The Motion includes several requests. One is to require 26 parties to make initial disclosures of the legal bases for their claims and defenses within sixty 27 (60) days of modification of the Case Management Order. Another is to allow document 28 discovery immediately. Another is to allow dispositive motions by any party, apparently, at 1 any time, based on the initial disclosures and documents produced. The Motion suggests a 2 mechanism and procedure for making document requests, responses, documents produced and 3 other pleadings available to parties joined after the fact. Finally, the Motion includes a vague 4 discussion concerning preservation of the status quo while litigation is pending.

6 The Walker River Irrigation District (the "District") was a participant in the process 7 which resulted in the entry of the Case Management Order on April 18, 2000. That Order was 8 entered after the filing of simultaneous motions, responses to motions, and replies from the 9 District and Nevada, California, the United States, and the Walker River Tribe. Although the 10 Order recognizes that the Magistrate Judge may change, modify and adjust it from time to time, 11 such changes, modifications and adjustments should not alter the fundamental decisions made 12 by the Court for the management of this matter without good and sufficient reason. That said, 13 the District agrees that it is now time to undertake such procedures as may be necessary "so that 14 the action may proceed as promptly as possible upon conclusion of service of process" as 15 directed in the Case Management Order. See, Case Management Order, para. (11), pg. 9, lns.
16 15-17.

18 In the judgment of the District, the Case Management Order, as presently written, and 19 without need for modification, provides ample authority and discretion for the Magistrate Judge 20 to take such actions as may be necessary to meet the above objective and to allow Phase I of 21 these proceedings to commence promptly on completion of service. In order to begin that 22 process, the District suggests that the Magistrate Judge consider the actions described below.

24 II. PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (6) OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER, 25 THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE SHOULD NOW ESTABLISH A SCHEDULE
26 FOR COMPLETION OF SERVICE OF PROCESS.

27 Paragraph (6) of the Case Management Order allows the Magistrate Judge to "establish 28 a schedule for completion of service of process which may be modified by further order from time to time as appropriate." Case Management Order, para. (6), pg. 7, lns. 5-7. The District

1 recognizes that in April of 2000 it was impossible to establish a realistic schedule for 2 completion of service of process. However, several years have passed since the Court first 3 authorized the United States and the Tribe to begin service of process, and significant progress 4 has been made by them in that service. Establishment of a target date now for completion of 5 service would be helpful for the Court and the parties to begin to do those things necessary to 6 allow this action to proceed as promptly as possible on completion of service of process under 7 the procedures established in the Case Management Order.

9 III. PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (10) OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER, 10 THE COURT SHOULD DIRECT THE PARTIES BY A DATE CERTAIN TO 11 JOINTLY OR SEPARATELY RECOMMEND PROCEDURES TO THE COURT
12 FOR SERVICE OF PLEADINGS ON PARTIES TO THE LITIGATION, AND 13 FOR MAKING DISCOVERY REQUESTS, DISCOVERY RESPONSES, AND 14 DOCUMENTS PRODUCED AVAILABLE TO THE PARTIES TO THIS
15 LITIGATION.

16 Paragraph (10) of the Case Management Order provides as follows:

17 Following completion of service of process on the said counterclaims, the 18 Magistrate Judge shall receive recommendations of the parties for procedures 19 for scheduling and for the efficient management of the litigation given the 20 number of parties to the case. Such procedures may include the use of common 21 counsel, special procedures for service of pleadings, or any other mechanisms 22 deemed likely to reduce the burdens on the parties and the court in a case of this 23 magnitude.

24 Case Management Order, para. (10), pg. 8, lns. 19-26.

25 Although paragraph (10) of the Case Management Order contemplates that these 26 recommendations be made following completion of service, it seems prudent that the Court 27 begin to receive those recommendations at this time. Indeed, previously, the parties had 28 commenced to consider such procedures.

29 Much of what the pending Motion requests depends upon having in place special 30 procedures for making pleadings, discovery requests, discovery responses, and documents 31 produced available to the hundreds of parties in this case, many of whom are not represented by 32 counsel. The Motion includes a proposal to establish a website for purposes of posting requests

1 for production of documents, responses to requests for production of documents, and copies of 2 documents produced, as well as making such information available at various public places
3 within the area affected by this litigation. That proposal needs further analysis and evaluation 4 with respect to its cost and how those costs might be funded. In addition, the efficacy of the 5 proposal needs additional evaluation. Therefore, the Court should establish a schedule by 6 which the parties would jointly or separately recommend procedures that encompass the need 7 to have mechanisms for service of pleadings on, and making discovery available to, all parties 8 to this action, particularly those who have filed a Notice of Appearance and Intent to 9 Participate, but who have not engaged counsel.

11 IV. PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (11) OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER, 12 THE COURT SHOULD ESTABLISH A SCHEDULE FOR SUBMISSION OF A 13 LIST OF THRESHOLD ISSUES BY THE PARTIES, AND FOR MAKING A 14 PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION OF THE THRESHOLD ISSUES TO BE 15 ADDRESSED AT THE OUTSET OF THE LITIGATION.

16 Paragraph (11) of the Case Management Order provides:

17 As soon as convenient after the entry of this order, and upon appropriate notice 18 to the parties presently appearing in the case, the Magistrate Judge shall consider 19 and make a preliminary determination of the threshold issues to be addressed at 20 the outset of the litigation on the U.S./Tribe said counterclaims. Scheduling of 21 such consideration shall go forward notwithstanding other proceedings provided 22 for in this order. The list of threshold issues regarding said claims will not be 23 finally resolved and settled by the Magistrate Judge until all appropriate parties 24 are joined. Nevertheless, the parties are directed to identify all potential 25 threshold issues promptly and to submit them to the Magistrate Judge for 26 consideration, as he shall direct, so that action may proceed as promptly as 27 possible upon conclusion of service of process.

28 Case Management Order at para. (11), pg. 9, lns. 4 -17.

Initially, the Court should direct the United States and the Tribe to disclose the bases for the Tribal Claims. The pending Motion would have all parties make an initial disclosure of the legal bases for their claims and defenses simultaneously within sixty (60) days of modification of the Case Management Order. In order to identify threshold issues not included in the Case Management Order, it is appropriate, and probably necessary, for the Tribe and the United

1 States to first disclose the legal bases for their claims. With that information, the parties will be 2 in a better position to suggest, and the Magistrate Judge will be in a better position to consider 3 and make a preliminary determination of, threshold issues to be addressed at the outset of the 4 litigation.

13 LITIGATION.

14 In 2000, the District took the position that the Case Management Order should allow 15 "any party, at any time, to propound interrogatories and requests for production of documents 16 to the United States and the Tribe concerning their contentions with respect to the claims 17 alleged in their amended counterclaims." See, Joint Motion Concerning Case Management of 18 Walker River Irrigation District, and State of Nevada and Proposed Order Concerning Case 19 Management attached thereto as Exhibit A at paragraph 16 filed January 21, 2000. However, 20 in response to that position, the Court in paragraph (15) of the Case Management Order 21 determined as follows:

22 Once the Magistrate Judge has finally determined the threshold issues, discovery 23 shall be allowed to all parties on the threshold issues. Discovery shall also be 24 permitted during that same time period concerning the basis for the Tribal 25 Claims; such discovery shall be limited to propounding of interrogatories and 26 requests for production of documents relating to the contentions of the 27 U.S./Tribe with respect to the basis for the tribal Claims.

28 The District continues to believe that discovery should be permitted with respect to the bases for the Tribal Claims. It recognizes, however, the need for effective procedures for making service of that discovery on all parties, as well as making the responses to such discovery available to all parties. The District also recognizes that the United States and the Tribe should not be required to respond multiple times to identical discovery requests. The 1 Motion also recognizes that the procedures for service on all parties must be determined and in 2 place in order to facilitate such discovery. Therefore, those procedures must be determined 3 before discovery proceeds.

4 VI. THE COURT SHOULD NOT OTHERWISE MODIFY THE CASE
5 MANAGEMENT ORDER.

6 Although it is not entirely clear, it seems that the Motion contemplates a change to the 7 Case Management Order that would allow parties to bring dispositive motions on any legal 8 basis, at any time, regardless of whether the dispositive motion is related to a threshold issue.
9 The framework of the Case Management Order related to initial disposition of threshold issues
10 should be maintained going forward. Some threshold issues may, in fact, involve matters 11 which are dispositive of all or some portion of the Tribal Claims. However, dispositive
12 motions unrelated to threshold issues would be an extreme departure from the Case 13 Management Order, and is not justified at this time.

15 The Motion also includes a vague statement concerning maintenance of the status quo
16 while the litigation is pending. There is insufficient information in that portion of the Motion 17 for the District to understand what is contemplated by it. Moreover, the Proposed Order 18 Amending Case Management Order includes no reference to maintenance of the status quo. If, 19 at some point in time, a party believes that some sort of injunctive relief is required to preserve 20 the status quo, the party or parties may file an appropriate motion with the Court which 21 identifies the acts which the Court is being requested to enjoin, and sets forth the facts on which
