This ORDER addresses a service issue raised in subproceeding C-125-B, as discussed by the parties on several occasions, including the Status Conference conducted on May 9, 2012, in Case No. C-125 and subproceedings C-125-B and C-125-C.

Although the Court will not enter defaults in this subproceeding for failure to appear, all defendants must file a Notice of Appearance, as a pro se defendant or through counsel, if they wish to receive notice of filings and orders in this subproceeding. Any defendant who waived service or was personally served, but has failed to appear in a timely manner as directed by the Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons (when served by mail) and the Notice in Lieu of Summons (when personally served), shall be deemed to have notice of all subsequent orders and filings in this subproceeding.

This Order confirms the position of the parties and the Court, as discussed at the May 9, 2012 Status Conference, and is consistent with the approved service packages for service by mail and personal service, the Case Management Order (Apr, 18, 2000, B-#108) in this subproceeding, the Federal
