MINUTE ORDER IN CHAMBERS:

At the status conference conducted on July 1, 2014, regarding the proposed superseding e-service order, the court directed the parties to exchange comments or suggestions with respect to the most recent version of the proposed superseding e-service order and the proposed content of a Report and Recommendation to be filed regarding the possible adoption of the superseding order. Under the lead of counsel for Plaintiff Andrew Guss Guarino, U.S. Dept. Of Justice/Indian Resources Section, Environment and Natural Resources Division, the parties will then submit the final version of the proposed e-service order and a memorandum to the court outlining the proposed substantive revisions to the original e-service order (Doc. # 1874) entered by District Judge Robert C. Jones. The court will thereafter assimilate the parties' memorandum into a Report and Recommendation to District Judge Jones proposing adoption of the superseding e-service order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
