This Order follows the United States of America's ("United States") filing of its Eighteenth Report of the United States of America Concerning Status of Service on Certain Persons and Entities, Case No. C-125, Subproceeding C-125-B (November 21, 2013, Doc. #B-1953) ("Eighteenth Service Report").

Any comments or objections were to be made no later than December 21, 2013. The United States reports that by December 21, 2013, the United States was contacted by two individuals with the following comments. Bill Brandt for the Silvester 2011 Revocable Trust contacted the United States concerning Patricia Alexander and informed the United States that Ms. Alexander was not at his address as the United States had previously believed. Additionally, Ned Welsh (for himself and Diane Welsh) informed the United States that their property is on an irrigation ditch. As a result, the United States will update Ms. Alexander's address in the event it determines Ms. Alexander's correct address in the future and the United States requests the dismissal of Ned and Diane Jeanne Welsh.

The Court hereby APPROVES AND ORDERS the relief requested therein by the United States.

"Attachment A" to this Order is a list of persons and entities who are hereby DISMISSED from this action pursuant to this Order. "Attachment B" to this Order is a list of persons and entities for which the Court has determined SERVICE IS COMPLETE, based on the above Eighteenth Service Report. "Attachment C" to this Order is a list of corrections to the caption in this case.

The Court hereby ORDERS that the persons and entities identified in “Attachment A” to this Order are DISMISSED, without prejudice.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED this ____day of _____, 2014.

Hon. William G. Cobb
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ All other dismissals related to the Court’s prior service Orders in connection with the United States’ prior service reports are also without prejudice.
