5	THE COURT: Good afternoon, everyone. Please be
6	seated. Thank you.
7	THE CLERK: This is the date and time set for a
8	status conference in case numbers 3:73-CV-125-ECR-WGC,
9	3:73-CV-127-ECR-WCG, and 3:73-CV-0128-ECR-WGC, United States
10	of America versus Walker River Irrigation and others.
11	Counsel present in the courtroom are Therese
12	Ure, George Benesch, Nico DePaoli, Dale Ferguson, Gordon
13	DePaoli, Wes Williams, Jr., and Susan Schneider.
14	Counsel present telephonically are Marta
15	Adams, Karen Peterson, Simeon Herskovits, Michael Neville,
16	and Stacey Simon.
17	THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Cotter.
18	If we could just do preliminarily go over who
19	is here, and tell me who you represent again, so I've got my
20	cheat sheet right.
21	MR. WILLIAMS: Wes Williams, Jr., representing
22	the Walker River Paiute Tribe.
23	MS. SCHNEIDER: Susan Schneider representing the
24	United States.
25	MR. DePAOLI: Gordon DePaoli, representing the

1 Walker River Irrigation District. 2 MR. FERGUSON: Dale Ferguson representing the 3 Walker River Irrigation District. 4 MR. DePAOLI: Nico DePaoli representing the 5 Walker River Irrigation District. 6 MS. URE: Therese Ure representing Circle Bar N 7 Ranch and Mica Farms. 8 MR. BENESCH: George Benesch representing Lyon 9 County. 10 THE COURT: You're hiding over there in the 11 corner, Mr. Benesch. I didn't see you. 12 Thank you, all. Two things I want to bring to 13 the parties' attention in trying to get up to speed on 14 this case. 15 First, I notice that one of the named 16 defendants was George Swainston. And I just want to alert 17 everyone who doesn't know that George Swainston was my 18 former partner. He passed away, I'm guessing now, about 19 four or five years ago. 20 I don't see that that presents any type of 21 conflict. I don't really have -- I don't take cases of 22 members of the firm. George hasn't been a member of the firm for even longer than that. But I just wanted to 23 24 bring it to everyone's attention. 25 The other one is one of the attorneys in this case is Louis Test of Hoffman, Test, Guinan & Collier.

1
 2 Louis Test, and probably the firm, are on my 3 recusal list because I represented the firm in a matter 4 and have been close personal friends with Louis Test for 5 50 years.
 6
                 I understand that Mr. Test is going to be 7 withdrawing from representation of the parties in this 8 case and that Mr. Benesch has apparently been contacted 9 about possibly representing the four or five entities that 10
    Mr. Test represents now.
11
                 Mr. Benesch, can you shed any light on that?
12
                 MR. BENESCH: That's correct. I did have a 13 discussion with Mr. Test the other day on the subject.
14
                 THE COURT: But there's been no substitution 15 affected yet?
16
                 MR. BENESCH: That's correct.
17
                 THE COURT: All right. I don't know if anyone 18 has any objection to my proceeding on this case until that 19 technical conflict is resolved. If so, would you speak up at 20 this time.
21
                 All right. Thank you. If you don't mind my drinking water, I've got some things going on here where I need to keep hydrated.
23
24 I have received the United States of America's 25 list of proposed agenda items. I appreciate the work that
```

1 went on with that list and the work of counsel on that as 2 well.
 3
                 And as you can see, I try to come up to speed 4 on all these issues that are presented by this agenda.
                 Ms. Schneider, do you wish to proceed? What's the standard protocol at these events?
 6
 7
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Usually what I've done is walk 8 through the agenda with the Court as the Court wishes us to 9 proceed.
              And then when there are matters that other 10 attorneys need to be heard on, then I've just sat back until 11 the next item comes up.
12
                 THE COURT: All right. And you know, Counsel, I 13 think with all these documents, why don't you all just sit 14 down for this proceeding and don't feel compelled to stand.
15
    I appreciate the recognition, but I think it might be more 16 convenient to everybody. And we also might get a better 17 record with the audible recording.
18
                 Well, Ms. Schneider, why don't you just -- why 19 don't we just proceed through your agenda item by item, 20 and if something comes up, we'll be discussing those, I 21 presume.
22
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. The first item 23 on the agenda is the status of service in C-125-B. And some 24 of this is reiterating what I think we've told the Court 25 before and put into our -- the status report that we filed in
```

1 January. But I think it's helpful to start out with a 2 summary of where we are in C-125-B. 3 The service for mail -- the service by mail with 4 a request for waiver of personal service was substantially 5 complete at the end of 2008. But cleanup has continued since 6 Personal service for persons and entities that did not 7 waive service continued into 2009 and was substantially 8 complete by 2010, with some lingering serves to be completed. 9 Our last collection of returns of personal 10 service was filed in November of 2011. 11 At this point, there are several hundred 12 notices that we've gotten of transfers. But we also 13 suspect there have been other sales that have occurred 14 where people haven't bothered to notify the Court. 15 We have filed 16 service reports at this point. We have signed orders in 15 of them. And the 16 proposed order for service report 16 is before the Court. 17 18 We have a number of dismissals and some 19 notices of appearances and address changes that we have 20 accumulated since filing the Sixteenth Report. And we would be putting those into a Seventeenth Report.

We had held off on filing the Seventeenth Report because it seemed to us that the resolution of the Sixteenth Report might affect what we put into the 25 | Seventeenth Report.

23

1
                 But depending on what the Court does today, we 2 would be prepared to start to go ahead and put together 3 the Seventeenth Report, even if we hold some of the issues 4 in the Sixteenth Report aside. I don't know what the 5 Court's going to do with that today.
 6
                 THE COURT: The Sixteenth Report, as I 7 understand it, has to determine whether certain entities or 8 persons should be dismissed because they're not -- they're 9 either not municipal users or they're not groundwater users 10 or something like that?
11
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct, Your Honor.
12
                 THE COURT: And would the Rosachi, Walker
13 General be contained in the Seventeenth Report or the 14 Sixteenth?
15
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Well --
                 THE COURT: If we went ahead with them.
16
17
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's the next item on the 18
             And that is the request for removal from the mailing 19 list; one by Mary Rosachi, and the other one by Walker 20 General.
21
                 It causes me to note that for some reason both 22 of these defendants are on the certificate of service 23 despite the Magistrate Judge McQuaid's order in February 24 of 2008.
              It's document 1300, that -- 25
                 THE COURT: Only the attorneys get served.
```

1 MS. SCHNEIDER: Pardon me? 2 THE COURT: Only the attorneys get served and 3 only electronically? MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct. That there was 4 5 to be some restriction and service to the primary parties 6 until service was finished. 7 So as a practical matter, they shouldn't have 8 been on the list and receiving materials at this point. 9 So there are a couple of options for the 10 Court. One would be to just simply omit them from service 11 now until all the other -- until we retreat from document 12 1300; that is, we put it to the side and try to figure out 13 what broader service has to be made once the preliminary 14 case management orders -- case management issues are 15 resolved. 16 What I should also say is that Mrs. Rosachi 17 filed a notice of appearance. So she would be getting 18 notice of possible future use of e-serve. 19 The other thing is that for Walker General, 20 they had waived service and disclaimed an interest. And 21 they are one of the persons and entities that's caught up 22 in the pending issues of -- set out in report number 16. 23 But I also note from a footnote in our filing 24 in our report 16 that it was our assessment that Walker 25 General was really more akin to being a domestic user, and we had intended to ask the Court to dismiss them.

 2
                 So that's where we stand with those two right 3
    now.
 4
                 THE COURT: Now, I understand Walker River
 5 Irrigation District has some concern about the proposed 6 dismissals called for by the Sixteenth Report and order.
 7
    Should we turn to that at this time, Ms. Schneider?
 8
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think we can. It's not Walker 9 River Irrigation District that filed something, it was 10 actually the -- 11
                 THE COURT: Oh, the -- 12
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: -- it was the U.S. Board of Water Commissioners.
14
                 THE COURT: Water Commissioners.
15 MS. SCHNEIDER: The pending issue that we put before the Court in -- 16
17
                 MR. DePAOLI: Excuse me, Your Honor. Gordon 18
    DePaoli on behalf of the Walker River Irrigation District.
19 I did want to comment on the item 1-B on the agenda, the Mary Rosachi and Walker General, if I could, 20 21 before you go to the next one.
22
                 THE COURT: Well, I wasn't done with the first 23 one, A or B, 1-A or B, but if -- 24
                 MR. DePAOLI: Oh, I'm sorry.
25
                 THE COURT: -- want to -- if it's an appropriate time to add it in, go ahead.

MR. DePAOLI: Well, what I was going to add to that, Your Honor, is it seems to me that it would make sense to expand Judge McQuaid's order, which is docket number 1300.

At least the way I read the order, it was written to apply only to the clerk and not necessarily to attorneys appearing for parties in the case. And I think that if perhaps that order was expanded so that all of us could simply rely on the attorneys who have appeared to receive service electronically until we get further down the road with some of these other issues, then perhaps issues like what Ms. Rosachi has and Walker General could be avoided for a while.

It does not -- and I noted that Ms. Rosachi basically said she'd like to be deleted for now but if she decided that she wanted to be back on, she would let everybody know. And I'm not sure in a case like this one that's going to work very well. So maybe we could cover it that way with Judge McQuaid's order for now and then see where we are later.

THE COURT: Well, what about the proposal that Ms. Schneider has, that we just go ahead and remove them from the mailing list, and they shouldn't have been on there to begin with, and we just follow Judge McQuaid's order. It wouldn't need any amendment and that the only -- clerk's

1 office is limiting its service, and expand that to the 2 attorneys involved in the case, only to those who are on that 3 document 1300 list. How would that work? 4 MR. DePAOLI: That would be fine, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Ms. Schneider, do you want to 6 include that in a revised order on Sixteenth Report, and we 7 could -- rather than waiting for the Seventeenth Report, and 8 we can take care of that issue? 9 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will do that. 10 THE COURT: All right. 11 Does anyone else have anything to say about the 12 issue about Rosachi and Walker General? 13 And I think what we would do down the road when 14 we get to this issue about the electronic notification and so 15 forth that, at that time, she can opt in or opt out. But maybe somebody could give Ms. Rosachi and 16 17 Walker General a call, just to tell them what we've done here 18 today, so they have some better understanding. Tell them 19 we've relieved them from being on the mailing list and they 20 shouldn't be getting anything. But they will be getting 21 something in the future, who knows when, from the Court about 22 electronic service and filing in this case. 23 MS. SCHNEIDER: Okay. If I could, Your Honor. I'll send them a letter. Would that be better? 24 25 THE COURT: I think that's an excellent idea.

1 MS. SCHNEIDER: We'll send them a letter. 2 that way there will be a record of what we told them. 3 THE COURT: All right. Does that then take care 4 of agenda items 1-A and B? 5 MS. SCHNEIDER: I believe so, Your Honor. 6 And then that would bring us to the Sixteenth 7 Report of the United States and how to resolve that issue 8 at this point. 9 The pending issue is whether the Court --10 there are actually two questions. Whether the Court 11 intends that the persons and entities that we've 12 identified in that report should be parties to the 13 question -- excuse me, parties to the case. 14 First of all, the question is whether the 15 Court -- whether these persons and entities fit within any 16 of the nine categories of persons and entities identified 17 in the case management order; and, secondly, whether the 18 Court intended in any way to include these persons and 19 entities. And basically what -- the case management order 20 requires service in California on groundwater users who --21 on municipal users of groundwater. 22 These persons and entities aren't technically 23 municipal users. Some categories within various offices 24 have classified them at quasi-municipal. And that's why 25 we've put them in as -- out of an abundance of caution.

1 | But they're very, very small users.

And, in fact, in our Sixteenth Report, we noted that there were five of them that, as we looked closer at them, we thought that they really were much more like domestic users but that they all seemed to be small users.

So we put the issue out some time ago to the primary parties. We tried to work out -- get an understanding about what various positions were, as to whether they were part of the case management order, whether they should be in or not, and we got no -- we had no resolution on the matter, and so we filed the Sixteenth Report.

And I tried to -- the best that I could, to identify the various positions that we had heard at the time, concerns expressed by Walker River Irrigation

District in a couple of e-mails, and concerns expressed by Mono County in its e-mails. Mono County and I think, also, California are taking the position that these people are not municipal users. And so the issue -- that's the issue presented in Report 16.

When we were here last, the Court directed me to prepare a proposed order that would dismiss them. And we did that and then served it, as well, on what I believe is 15 persons and entities total.

1 We then -- the Court had designated a period 2 of time for any parties to respond if they had concerns 3 with the order. And the U.S. Board filed a request asking 4 that this matter be addressed at this particular status 5 conference. 6 And then we responded expressing some concerns 7 about the U.S. Board's moving into filing -- actually 8 filing a substantive filing, as opposed to dealing with 9 anything that would be more procedural and our concern 10 because they're not a party -- among other things, that 11 they're not a party to the case. 12 THE COURT: Ms. Peterson, do you wish to address 13 those comments? 14 MS. PETERSON: Yes, Your Honor, I do. Thank 15 you. And I apologize that I'm not there in person today. 16 And, also, Mr. Jim Shaw, the Water Master, I 17 believe he's in the audience too. He would have more 18 information on the facts that were set forth about the 15 19 persons or entities that are listed in our request. 20 But Judge Reed's 1990 order in the C-125 case 21 says that the Board acts as a special master in C-125 cases. And historically, and as I documented in the 22 23 request that we filed, document 1693, the Board has filed 24 documents or pleadings in this proceeding. No objections 25 had been made -- to my knowledge, no objections had been made to the filings. And to my knowledge, special masters can file documents with the Court.

I don't know of any prohibition or order in this case that says the Board acting as a special master cannot file pleadings with the Court. I assume the Court gives the pleadings, you know, filed by the Board, the merit or the credence that the Court deems appropriate.

So in the request that the Board filed, the Board provided information to the Court that hadn't been provided by the main parties to this action. It was --

THE COURT: Ms. Peterson, let me -- if I may interrupt you for a second.

What you've just addressed is something that Ms. Schneider also mentioned about whether Walker River Board of Commissioners, Water Commissioners has what we might call standing in this action.

And I went back and read that 1990 order, as did you, and it -- they may not be a party in this case, but they are -- they certainly are what might be called a player. And it seems to me that we should receive filings, whether it's substantive or procedural, from your client in this action.

And I would ask -- I'll ask the parties to address that issue. Does anyone else besides Ms. Schneider have a comment on this subject about the Board of Water Commissioners? Yes?

                 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor. Wes Williams,
 2 Jr. -- 3
                 THE COURT: Mr. Williams.
 4
                 MR. WILLIAMS: -- Walker River Paiute Tribe.
 5
    This is an issue that the Tribe has had a concern about for a 6 number of years. It had filed some pleadings in the past 7 regarding the representation of the Board and the same 8 attorney representing the parties in the case. And because 9 of that, the Court entered its order -- 10
                 THE COURT: Separating -- 11
                 MR. WILLIAMS: -- separating the two.
12
                 But it did note that the Board is a 13 quasi-judicial entity and is subject to the rules of judicial 14 conduct.
15
                 And based on that, I think there's a -- there's 16 a line there somewhere, and we're not exactly sure where it's 17 at.
18
                 THE COURT: This case has guite a few lines that 19 are blurred.
20
                 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes.
21
                 THE COURT: I found that out in a hurry.
22
                 MR. WILLIAMS:
                                In asking about that issue, we 23 did raise it with the Board just recently. There was a Board 24 of Water Commissioners meeting last week where the Tribe had 25 submitted a letter asking about this specific issue and

1 trying to get the views of the Board on this issue. 2 We have not received a response from that yet. 3 We understand that -- we're hoping that we will be getting 4 something soon. 5 THE COURT: Was the question that you posed to them about whether they are a party or should be a party or 6 7 not? Or is it on something else? 8 MR. WILLIAMS: There were a number of different 9 issues. But that was part of it. And basically a general 10 question of what they viewed their role as. 11 And what prompted the letter was in a proceeding 12 before the state engineer that's going on right now, that the 13 Board had submitted a pleading to the state engineer arguing 14 a position against the application. And because of that, it 15 appeared that they were basically taking sides on that application. And if they're doing that, then they are 16 17 violating the Code of Judicial Conduct, where they're 18 supposed to be an impartial party -- or impartial entity. 19 So if that's the case --20 THE COURT: Well, that's a different issue, 21 The issue is whether we should allow them in this 22 case to file documents and address issues that they deem 23 relevant to the case.

And I note that they've been served sometimes, and sometimes they haven't. And I note sometimes that they

24

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 18 of 80

- have actually served documents, some without objection. And I just wanted to clarify their role as a colorable party to this case, however we want to call it.
- And my inclination is to allow Walker River

 Board of Water Commissioners to have that status in this case. Not a party. But I'm just saying that I'd like them to be served in this action. And by the -- under Judge

 McQuaid's order, to add them to the list and to allow them to file documents.

 - Now, if they have some constraints on them on how they file, they're not supposed to take positions, that's a different issue, and somebody can object to that.
 - But I just want to procedurally clarify that let's get this issue out of the way and get them into this case for filing and non-filing purposes.
 - MS. SCHNEIDER: Your Honor, they are on the e-file list, and they are served. And that's been traditional. I don't think they have not been served with documents.
 - MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, I agree with that.
 - THE COURT: Well, I was looking through -- I think Ms. Griffin and I were trying to find, the other day -- or somebody and I were looking, and we couldn't -- there was some service list that they were not on there.
 - MS. SCHNEIDER: They were at one point

1 represented by Linda Bowman, not Karen Peterson. 2 THE COURT: Well, the list I was looking at --3 and I'm sorry I can't identify right now, the certificate of 4 service had the parties whom the attorneys represented, and 5 it didn't include them. 6 MS. SCHNEIDER: I'm --7 MS. PETERSON: Your Honor? 8 THE COURT: Yes. 9 MS. PETERSON: This is Karen Peterson. I think 10 from maybe the U.S.'s perspective, the issue, when you ask 11 the parties to file something, they are taking the position that the U.S. Board is not a party, and so we're not entitled 12 13 to file something. 14 And so I don't know if you need to say in the 15 future, you know, parties and the U.S. Board, or how that should be clarified. But I -- you know, if you say, like you 16 17 did in your minute order, that the U.S. is supposed to get 18 together with the major plaintiff parties and major defendant 19 parties to go over the agenda, they would not include us in 20 that discussion because they don't think that we're a party. 21 MS. SCHNEIDER: There is a -- there are --22 there's an express statement in more than one place that the 23 U.S. Board is not a party. 24 THE COURT: And maybe where I got confused is that where you list the service by mail, you had Mr. Shaw

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 20 of 80

1 getting served. And I didn't notice Ms. Peterson's name at 2 But I see that she's on the e-mail list. that time. 3 MS. PETERSON: Everything that's filed with the 4 Court I get. 5 THE COURT: Well, maybe we just leave that to 6 rest right now, until somebody raises the issue of whether 7 you have standing or the ability to file something on a 8 particular matter. Does that issue exist at the present 9 time? 10 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor. Depending on how 11 the Board responds to the Tribe's letter, then we'll decide 12 if we need to bring something up with the Court or not. 13 THE COURT: Are there any other motions or 14 issues --15 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think it --16 THE COURT: -- pending? 17 MS. SCHNEIDER: Well, I think it does exist at 18 Let me mention a couple things here. this point. 19 First of all, procedurally, on page 14 of the 20 case management order, it states that any party may move to 21 modify the case management order. 22 The U.S. Board's not a party to any portion of 23 the proceedings, whether it's C-125-B -- C-125, or 24 subproceedings B or C. And then page 14 of the case 25 management order also sets out a standard of good cause shown 1 to modify the case management order.

And there's been -- that -- assuming that the U.S. Board has -- is able to file anything here, which they shouldn't be doing because they're not a party, they haven't met or even addressed the standards in their filing.

The other thing is that -- because what they seem to be doing here, I think, is asking the Court to amend the case management order and require service on some category of persons or entities that seem to be represented, to some extent, by the persons and entities identified by Service Report Sixteen.

It seems to me that if -- because I don't think anybody is -- I haven't heard anyone yet say that they believe that the persons and entities identified in Report Sixteen fit within the boundaries of the case management order as municipal providers of groundwater.

And if that is the case, then the next question would be whether there should be some sort of modification of the case management order to do that. But I don't see that that's actually been addressed.

The other thing is that I also noted that the 15 persons and entities involved in Report Sixteen were not served with the U.S. Board's filing. We served them. And so the last I heard from anyone was receiving the

1 order that we filed with the Court proposing their 2 dismissal. 3 And so that concerns me. So here we have 4 their -- the Board's not a party, it didn't file a motion 5 and hasn't met the standard, and it hasn't served anyone. 6 It's also -- moving to a second issue. I 7 would like to hear from the Board about its authority to 8 make this filing and that it should identify how this 9 decision was made; that is, to identify all the members of 10 the U.S. Board with whom this filing was discussed and 11 identify who approved filing this -- making this filing. 12 Because, among other things, the Tribe is 13 actually a member of the Board. And it's a minority 14 member and, I suspect, has been outvoted pretty 15 consistently over the years. But I'd like to know whether the -- you know, 16 which members of the Board this particular action was 17 18 discussed with and who approved its filing. 19 THE COURT: Well, we're not going to get into 20 that today. I mean, I don't know that that's the issue that 21 I'm trying to raise here. I'm trying to talk about a 22 procedural mechanism where we ensure that the Walker River

Whether they should or have not filed the Board of Water Commissioners gets served and that they serve people and have status in this case to file documents.

document is a beef that you have with the Board itself. And 2 whether you represent the Tribe, or Mr. Williams does, or 3 somebody can address it through those channels. 4 I'm just talking about today the service -- or 5 including the Walker River Board of Water Commissioners in 6 the chain of what's going on in this case. And I was kind of surprised that it hasn't been raised before this date.

When you talk about the case management order, I'm looking at page 8, under lines 18 through 26, Judge Reed stated that the magistrate judge shall receive recommendations of the parties for procedures for scheduling and for the efficient management of the litigation given the number of parties to the case. Such procedures may include the use of common counsel, special procedures for service of pleadings, or other mechanisms deemed likely to reduce the burdens on the parties and the court in a case of this magnitude.

And for the time being, unless something comes up that they are absolutely without standing, my suggestion is that we include the Walker River Board of Water Commissioners -- or the U.S. Board, I keep calling them Walker Board, the U.S. Board of Water Commissioners in the service list or loop.

Let me ask first Ms. Peterson whether she has any objection to this approach?

1 MS. PETERSON: No, Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: Do you think it's a wise idea or not 3 a wise idea to do this? And I don't mean to put you on the 4 spot. You can be critical of me. If you don't think we 5 ought to be going down this slippery slope, let me know. 6 MS. PETERSON: Your Honor, historically we have 7 tried to provide input and information to the Court as we 8 thought it was important for the Court to receive. And so I 9 think that's probably important on a going-forward basis. 10 But we just need to know. Because we have 11 provided that information in the past. It hasn't been 12 objected to. The judge -- I mean, in the other case, the C 13 case, document 210, the judge specifically relates that the 14 U.S. Board of Water Commissioners filed a pleading, a 15 substantive pleading in that case, and goes through and summarizes all the parties' position and the U.S. Board's 16 17 position. 18 So I think Judge Reed thinks it's important that 19 we're here. 20 THE COURT: All right. That is going to be the 21 order of the Court going forward. The U.S. Board of Water 22 Commissioners has -- I'm going to call it standing to serve 23 documents in these actions and should be served with matters 24 in these actions and may file, whether it's called a pleading or a report or status position or whatever, in all of the cases. So that will be going forward.

 2
                 Now we need to turn to the issue about the 3 proposal of the U.S. Attorney about dismissing certain 4 parties in this action under the Sixteenth Report.
 5 Ms. Schneider, I have received the United 6
    States' report on this matter.
 7
                 And I've reviewed the document you filed, 8
    Ms. Peterson, where you expressed concern that you don't 9 want to have someone objecting as to finality down the 10 road. I recognize that concern; however, I think that we 11 will proceed with the dismissal of those entities 12 identified by the U.S. Government, the United States of 13 America.
14
                 Ms. Schneider, does that sufficiently address 15 the issue about the nine service categories and the plans, 16 whether these parties fit in any of those nine groups?
17
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, it does, Your Honor.
18
                 THE COURT: All right. Now, is that going to be 19 also included in this revised report on the Sixteenth Report?
20
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will prepare a revised order 21 for the Court for Report 16 -- 22
                 THE COURT: All right.
23
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: -- and address that.
24
                 THE COURT: Will you include my comments about 25 the U.S. Board of Water Commissioners in that as well?

1
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. I -- well, I 2 will -- the best -- to the best that my notes allow me to do 3 so, I will do that, Your Honor.
 4
                 THE COURT: All right. If you wish to 5 disseminate a draft first to everyone and bring it to the 6 Court's attention, I would be happy to review it as quickly 7 as possible.
 8
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will do that, Your Honor.
 9
                 THE COURT: And if you do, tell everyone they have got to get an objection or comment in to the Court 10 11 within five days.
12
                 MS. SCHNEIDER:
                                 Okay.
13
                 THE COURT: Is there anything else on item 1-A about the Sixteenth Report before we turn to the Rosachi and 14 15
    Walker General issue?
                 Mr. DePaoli?
16
17
                 MR. DePAOLI: Yes, Your Honor. Along the 18 lines -- if I understood correctly, Ms. Schneider is going to 19 be preparing a new order relating to this dismissal. I think 20 it would be useful in that order to indicate to these parties 21 that the fact that they're being dismissed without prejudice 22 may mean that down the road they may have to become -- they 23 may be joined as a party later -- 24
                 My concern is that I think these parties 25
    probably don't completely understand the way the case

1 management order is structured and the fact that -- depending 2 on how some of the threshold issues get decided, they may get 3 dismissed today; but depending on how the threshold issue 4 concerning the relationship between surface and groundwater gets decided, they may get joined again later. 5 6 And I think that maybe to whatever extent we can 7 alert them to the fact that they are out for now but things 8 may change might preclude some issues coming up down the 9 road. 10 THE COURT: I think Mr. DePaoli makes a good 11 suggestion, Ms. Schneider. Do you have any comments? 12 MS. SCHNEIDER: I can do something like that. 13 The Court had already asked me to make that dismissal without 14 But I can put a sentence in to that effect. prejudice. 15 THE COURT: I think that's well advised, so people don't get surprised if, down the road, they're brought 16 17 back in. 18 MS. SCHNEIDER: I'll do that. 19 THE COURT: All right. I don't know how Judges 20 Leavitt and McQuaid did in the past on these hearings, but my 21 thought is to just go down the agenda item and ask if there's 22 anything else, first, on 1-A that we need to address. And if 23 not, we'll turn to 1-B. 24 All right. We'll turn to 1-B. No comments. 25 And that's the Rosachi and Walker General. And I think maybe

1 we've already addressed that in our precedent discussions, 2 that they will be eliminated from the mailing list. 3 And you're going to do a letter to them, 4 Ms. Schneider? 5 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will, Your Honor, yes. 6 THE COURT: All right. So that takes care of 7 that. 8 And I think what we just discussed on the report 9 of the United States concerning the status of service in 1-C 10 has also been addressed then. 11 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: All right. Now --13 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next -- I'm sorry. 14 THE COURT: Go ahead. 15 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next item is whether there 16 are any issues regarding the most recent filed proof of 17 service. 18 I noted this earlier, that our last filing of 19 personal service made by a process server was done on 20 November 30th, 2011. It's document 1670 in the B case. 21 As with past such filings, I had simply put them on the agenda to see if there were any concerns by any of the 22 23 parties. And there had been none expressed at prior times. 24 But I thought that since we had done the same thing with the 25 earlier proofs that I would add that on the agenda here, to

1 see if there were any comments or questions. 2 THE COURT: Are there any comments or questions 3 from anyone, agenda item 1-D? 4 Then there appears to be no comments or 5 questions. 6 MS. SCHNEIDER: And at this point, Your Honor, I 7 think the prior minutes of Magistrate Judge McQuaid on these 8 issues referenced that he had deemed them served on the 9 record, or somehow he had formally acknowledged the filing 10 and accepted it. And I would ask that the Court do the same 11 now. 12 THE COURT: Okay. Give me the magic words that 13 I'm supposed to say. 14 MS. SCHNEIDER: I believe -- and I could add 15 this into Report Sixteen, if you want me to. But my 16 recollection is the minutes from prior sessions include that the Court had deemed the persons and entities listed on the 17 18 proof of service to be served. 19 THE COURT: The Court deems the persons and 20 entities listed on the proof of service to have been properly served. And if you would note that in the order. 21 22 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will. 23 THE COURT: Did I say that right? 24 MS. SCHNEIDER: I'll go back and check my notes. 25 It sounds good.

1 THE COURT: When you redo your notes, make it 2 sound like I said the right thing. 3 MS. SCHNEIDER: Okav. 4 THE COURT: Anything else on the issue of most 5 recent proofs of service? I think I called that action 1-E. 6 I think that was 1-D, actually, as in David. 7 Do you want to address -- go ahead now? 8 MS. SCHNEIDER: I will. The next item under 1-E 9 is completing service. I have two subitems here. The first 10 is the need for finalized caption. And what I wanted to note 11 with the Court is with each approval of service report 12 internally, we have been updating the caption. We have 13 not -- there are no successors listed on that caption because they're not formally in the case at this point. That issue, 14 15 of course, is still pending in front of Judge Reed. And at some point -- today's not the time, I 16 17 think, to decide that, but at some point we would be 18 wanting to determine on -- with the Court, how to finalize 19 the caption in the case. That's the first item. 20 THE COURT: Do you have to do that on C as well 21 as B? 22 MS. SCHNEIDER: I believe that would happen in 23 the C case, as well, although I would defer to 24 Mr. Herskovits, who is on the telephone. 25 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes. That is going to be

1 necessary for the C case as well. MS. SCHNEIDER: We've also noticed that there 2 3 are a handful of people who have filed appearances, who are 4 not people we have actually served. So we're going to be --5 THE COURT: Gluttons for punishment? 6 MS. SCHNEIDER: It is an interesting 7 arrangement. 8 I think a couple of them may be successors, and 9 we'll track them down and try to clarify that with them. 10 that's something we already have on our radar screen to deal 11 with. 12 THE COURT: I would have to assume they are 13 successors in some fashion. Because why in the world else 14 would somebody in their right mind voluntarily get into this 15 lawsuit? MS. SCHNEIDER: I agree. I believe that's the 16 17 case. At least it certainly was one of them. And it may be 18 that they're not wholly successors. They may have succeeded 19 to only a portion of a water right. But we will be tracking 20 that down and try to figure it out. 21 The next item, which is one that I think that 22 Mr. DePaoli had identified to me, is one that he also 23 wanted to make sure that we address today, was to deal 24 with addressing any challenges to service.

The Court -- we touched on this very briefly

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 32 of 80

- at the last status conference. And Your Honor had suggested that I make a filing saying -- indicating that service was complete. And that's something I've certainly been thinking about.
- But I think there's a question as to how we do that in conjunction with the requirements of the case management order and where something like that is done in terms of the sequence of completing the preliminary case management issues.
- The paragraph that addresses that in the case management order is paragraph 9. I --
 - THE COURT: That's -- doesn't that --
- MS. SCHNEIDER: I'm sorry.

- THE COURT: -- preclude this case really from going forward with the identification issues, until service has been completed?
- MS. SCHNEIDER: That's -- there was also -- let me move to the right page here. Paragraph 9 says that after we've compiled the list of parties that the United States and Tribe intend to serve, the list and a description of the procedures by which it was compiled has to be filed and provided to the parties who shall have such period of time as the magistrate judge shall determine to file objections indicating whether the list is complete and includes all such water rights claimants within the categories described in

1 paragraph 3 who can reasonably -- 2
                 THE COURT: Paragraph 3 is the one with the nine 3 subcategories?
 4
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct, Your Honor.
 5
                 THE COURT: Okay.
 6
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: And then it says that the 7 magistrate judge shall consider and rule on all such 8 objections. And then corrections -- and addresses how and 9 when corrections to the list of intended parties would be 10 made.
11
                 A number of years ago I filed -- I did a 12 filing with the Court to identify what it was we were 13 doing to try to identify parties. And I don't have the 14 finding in front of me, but I believe the Court basically 15 accepted it for what it was. But I think that the question arises now as to how we deal with any objections 16 17
    to service.
18
                 And I don't -- I'm looking at Mr. DePaoli, 19 because I think this was an issue that he also had wanted 20 to address.
21
                 THE COURT: Mr. DePaoli?
                 MR. DePAOLI: Yes, Your Honor. And I wish my 22 memory were better about this. But as I read what paragraph 23
24 9 says, it seemed to me that it contemplated that all that 25 would happen either before service started or well after service started but while it was taking place. And we must have at some point decided not to do that quite that way.

I think really in order to deal with what's in paragraph 9, we need to see, I guess, a caption of who all is in the case. And I don't know to what extent it's necessary or not necessary to identify why they're in the case. But I think at this point, just having that caption will give us an indication as to whether anybody has been missed at least up to this point in time.

And I think that given where we are, we probably -- and part of this may depend on how Judge Reed handles the objections to the other orders. But it seems to me that whatever is on that list, it ought to be adequate for us to try to move forward with getting the threshold issues identified and moving along. And then if there's something else that needs to happen at some point later, it can be done then.

But I'm thinking that based on what has taken place to date, there is -- there should not be a lot to do in terms of what paragraph 9 has to say, which really was designed to make sure we had a fairly comprehensive list of who the United States and the Tribe were going to attempt to serve.

THE COURT: What document was it that I was looking at, if you could think of -- read my mind, that had a list of all the defendants? Was it the amended complaint of

 2
    Mineral County in C?
 3
                 MR. DePAOLI: That has the C. But the caption 4 in this case will be considerably larger than that.
                                                         There
    is -- 6
                 THE COURT: I think they have 3,850 service 7 packages mailed out, and 1,500 personally served.
 8
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's right. It's a fairly 9 long caption, and we've been -- 10
                 THE COURT: Looking at 3,000 defendants in B.
11
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Approximately, yes, Your Honor.
                 THE COURT: And you think all those people, 12 13 entities, holders have been served now?
14
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: What we were tasked to do was to 15 identify the persons and entities who fit within those 16 categories and then go out and serve them. And so what we 17 did was to go and look at a variety of sources, whether it 18 was cards of -- the WRID cards of persons and entities 19 holding rights under the Walker River Irrigation District, 20 the U.S. Board's cards for other decreed rights holders. We 21 have been into offices -- the state engineer's offices in 22
    Nevada. We've been into similar offices in California.
    We've been into a variety of counties and had people do a 23 24 fair amount of research. And so we certainly came to the 25 conclusion that we had looked everyplace that we needed to

1 | look.

One of the things that we also did was that in filing the service reports, we provided a certain amount of identification on every person and entity that we served. We identified the categories that we thought they fit into, although we caveated each filing saying that, you know, there might be more -- it may not be complete, it may not be everything.

And we identified whether they had attorneys. We identified their addresses, the names of the persons and entities and so forth. And so that information, along with the backup information, as exhibits, was provided to the Court. And it was provided to -- we served every one of the defendants -- the proposed defendants who were addressed in each such service order.

And we served each of those served persons and entities with the backup information that we had on them.

Just for themselves. And then we made that information available to the primary defendants. It was filed with the Court and e-filed as the Court moved into using the e-service, the computer docket.

But then we -- the Court gave the primary parties -- and I think Ms. Peterson looked at them sometimes for questions of whether trusts were addressed properly. And Mr. Ferguson looked at most of them as

1 well. And so if they had objections, they were to be 2 raised at the time that each service -- each service report was addressed. And that's how the Court went at it 3 4 at the time. 5 THE COURT: So are we in position now in, let's 6 start with B, to identify all the named defendants, in that 7 we believe this list is fairly complete and accurate? 8 MS. SCHNEIDER: We are trying to pull that 9 together now. 10 One thing I think that might help here, and 11 following what Mr. DePaoli has said, looking at paragraph 12 9 on page 8 of the case management order, the fourth line 13 states that the -- this information is to be provided to 14 the parties. And that would mean all 3,000. 15 And I'm not sure whether the Court intends that and whether it's information that would be provided 16 17 to the primary parties such as those such as WRID that 18 have been following this matter closely and would be the 19 ones who would be doing the review of who is a party and 20 who is not. 21 THE COURT: What was the language of paragraph 9 22 that you had trouble with? 23 MS. SCHNEIDER: It's line 9. It indicates that 24 it's to be provided to the parties who get a period of time to file objections as to whether the list is complete.

                 THE COURT: So you're concerned about sending 2 that out to 3,000 people in B?
 3
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Right. And I'm wondering if the 4 Court -- and if the Court would -- if the Court thinks that 5 that should be interpreted to be less than all of the parties but the primary ones who have been doing the work on the case.
 7
 8
                 And, again, the record's not going to reflect 9 this, but I'm looking at Mr. DePaoli right now to see if he 10 has a position on this matter.
11
                 THE COURT: Why can't we assume that Judge 12 McQuaid's order modified paragraph 9, that the service is 13 only on the attorneys -- 14
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Very well, Your Honor.
                 THE COURT: -- what this refers to.
15
16
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. That, I think, 17 would do it.
18
                 THE COURT: Does that take care of it?
19
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think that works it.
20
                 THE COURT: Mr. DePaoli?
21
                 MR. DePAOLI: Yes. I really think Judge Reed 22 had in mind that this was going to happen while the number of 23 parties were very small because the purpose was to identify 24 all the other parties who were going to be served and brought 25 in later, so that the reference there was to the parties who
```

1 were participating at the time and who were charged with helping to identify who all the other parties ought to be. 2 3 So I think that's fine. 4 My main concern is to understand what it is 5 we're going to be challenging here at this point in time. 6 THE COURT: I think we'll be challenging the 7 list that Ms. Schneider is going to be preparing of 8 defendants A through Z. Is that what you're going to be 9 doing? 10 MS. SCHNEIDER: We will be -- we will start to 11 put that together. 12 THE COURT: And then she'll distribute that list 13 among the counsel who are getting service in this action and 14 probably bring it up with the next report or the appropriate time to say this is the list. And then I think we've made 15 16 some progress toward getting to the point where we can then 17 turn to the threshold issues when service has been completed. 18 As I understand, under the CMO that's a 19 pre-condition to addressing the threshold issues which you 20 all identified, what, three, four years ago now? 21 MR. DePAOLI: Yes. 22 MS. SCHNEIDER: It also seemed to me that if 23 there are any outstanding issues on this -- and maybe the way 24 we've resolved this right now it's not going to be a concern.

But my notes indicate that I was thinking that if there were any other service issues, some of the -- that is an issue

 2 that we might also think about addressing, to some extent, in 3 the -- whatever it is that we publish when we do publication.
 4
                 That's all that I have on item number one, all 5
    the subparts.
                 THE COURT: Anyone else have anything to address 6 7
    in 1-E?
 8
                 I don't think there's probably too much on two, 9 but go ahead if that's your next problem.
10
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I turn to Mr. Herskovits.
11 That's his case.
12
                 THE COURT: Oh, the Mineral County case?
13
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct.
14
                 THE COURT: Mr. Herskovits.
15
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes, Your Honor. This is -- 16
                 THE COURT: Could you speak up a little bit, 17
    please.
18
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes. Can you hear me now?
19
                 THE COURT: Yes.
20
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: Okay.
                                         Sorry.
21
                 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 resolution of the pending objections before Judge Reed. 2 I would point out that there were a number of 3 issues that had been raised in WRID's objections to 4 Magistrate Judge Leavitt's order that may well be, in fact, resolved by Mineral County's response to those objections. 5 6 And I think once we receive an order from Judge Reed on the 7 two or so fundamental questions that may remain outstanding, 8 we would incorporate all of the issues in any agreement or 9 consensus that we've reached with WRID over those issues into 10 the service report or status of service report that we would 11 file after Judge Reed's order. 12 There's really nothing more to report. As has 13 already been mentioned, the caption in 125-C is part of what 14 is before Judge Reed right now. And I think that once we 15 have that order, we'll have a clear roadmap towards the finalization of the caption in 125-C as well. 16 17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. 18 Does anyone have any comment on agenda item two? 19 Ms. Schneider. 20 MS. SCHNEIDER: Moving on to item three, Your 21 Honor? 22 THE COURT: Yes. 23 MS. SCHNEIDER: This addresses the status of 24 work on the notification protocol. At the last status 25 conference, the Court directed the primary parties in B case to -- and also in C, to try to begin to discuss a variety of methods to use to do notification here.

The first issue that we talked about and focused on is a proposed order and -- notice and order regarding the use of electronic service. We elected to focus on the B case and not the C case at this point because the B case seems to be a little closer to moving into the -- into that kind of order. C doesn't seem quite ready for it. And if we can put something together in the B case that is acceptable to the Court, then I think we can certainly do the order for the C case fairly rapidly thereafter.

THE COURT: Does this agenda item coincide with item number 6 as well? Should we take these together?

MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. It does, to a degree.

THE COURT: You know what I might -- Lia Griffin from the clerk's office is here. And I would ask her to maybe sit here at the witness stand, if you want, because I think she and her office are going to be a key player in this matter. And we'll need her participation on these issues, particularly as to the electronic service.

MS. SCHNEIDER: And what I did was I used the first order in the Orr Ditch Decree on the use of e-service for persons who were not represented by counsel who had filed notices of appearance.

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 43 of 80

1 THE COURT: I noticed some similarity of 2 language --3 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes. And --4 THE COURT: -- between the two. 5 MS. SCHNEIDER: -- the parties had several calls 6 on it. And drafts were exchanged. And we still have a draft 7 document with some questions that we need to still discuss. 8 But what I did in conjunction with today's 9 status conference was to contact Ms. Griffin and send a 10 copy of the draft to her. 11 And I also contacted Mr. DePaoli to let him 12 know that I had done so. 13 And I was asked and set up a meeting with her 14 this morning. And so Mr. Ferguson and I met with 15 Ms. Griffin this morning to talk about a variety of 16 issues, beginning with the proposed -- the draft e-service 17 order and notice. 18 She gave us several comments and observations 19 and some suggested changes and edits. And I'll be working 20 And my intent is to send a revised draft out to on that. 21 the various attorneys who are working on this so that we 22 can try to bring that draft to a position where we can 23 think about how it is that we would like to present it to 24 the Court. 25 Now --

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 44 of 80

1 THE COURT: You know what. Let me interrupt a 2 second. I had a couple meetings with Ms. Griffin this 3 morning as well. And I think we might ask her to comment on 4 it. 5 But I think she perceives that the Orr Ditch 6 Decree was mainly a mechanism to receive filings by e-mail, 7 while what you're proposing is both sending -- or filing and 8 receiving. 9 MS. SCHNEIDER: I intended to draft the order 10 only for receiving and not for filing. I think we're on the 11 But, clearly, the way she read the order, I same page. 12 hadn't written it clearly enough. 13 THE COURT: She had a suggestion, too, though, 14 so what you could do by non-attorney filers. 15 Ms. Griffin, would you address that, of the court clerk's office filing in it for them. 16 17 MS. GRIFFIN: We spoke about it --18 THE COURT: Would you speak into the microphone 19 there so we can get --20 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes. Counsel and I discussed it 21 this morning. And it would closely mirror what's going on 22 with the Orr Ditch Decree in that when pro se filers need to 23 file a document, they would still send it into the clerk's 24 office, rather than filing it electronically. 25 That way when the clerk's office dockets that item, we can make sure that it's properly electronically

 2 connected where it needs to be, so that it's submitted to the 3 court in the usual fashion.
                 In the Orr Ditch Decree, the scheduling
 4 5
    order -- the briefing scheduling order on the motion to 6 amend goes into a description on how, then, the documents 7 that the pro se filers are filing with the court would be 8 disseminated to all the other parties, in order that the 9 pro se filers aren't having to endure that large postage 10 fee of what did we calculate, about $500 just to file any 11 documents.
12
                 So in the Orr Ditch Decree, I understand, and 13
    Mr. Ferguson is probably more conversant about this, that 14 it's done through a postcard method. And it's done periodically, not at each filing. No?
15
16
                 THE COURT: Mr. Ferguson, do you wish to address 17 it?
18
                 MR. FERGUSON:
                                Thank you, Your Honor.
                                                         I think 19 the way it has been done so far is -- 20
                 THE COURT: You can go ahead and be seated, 21
    Mr. Ferguson.
22
                 MR. FERGUSON: -- for each filing there has been 23 a postcard that has gone out.
24
                 THE COURT: For each filing?
25
                 MR. DePAOLI: Excuse me, Your Honor. Gordon

1 DePaoli. There is -- to my knowledge, there is no notice 2 given of pro se filings to anyone who is not signed up for 3 electronic service.
 4
                 THE COURT: At the present time, there isn't?
 5
                 MR. DePAOLI: At the present time in Orr Ditch.
 6
    The only postcard --
 7
                 THE COURT: Oh, in Orr Ditch?
                 MR. DePAOLI: Yes. In Orr Ditch the only 8 9 postcard notice goes when one of the parties represented by 10 counsel does a filing.
11
                 In other words, pro se filings by respondents 12 are e-filed by the clerk -- or are filed by the clerk, and 13 that goes to everyone electronically. But there is no 14 postcard notice that I'm aware of that gives notice of that filing to other respondents. Or in this case, that would be 15 16 to other defendants.
17
                 THE COURT: So if somebody in that case, pro se 18 filer were to file a motion for summary judgment, that 19 doesn't get served on everybody?
20
                 MR. DePAOLI: It does not get served on the pro 21 se parties.
                 But that's an unusual proceeding, Your Honor, 22 because the only -- what is going on there is a motion to 23 amend the decree under Rule 60. And so it's a very limited 24 sort of pleadings that are going to get filed; whereas here, 25 it is something that I think we do need to consider, in terms
```

1 of what should or should not happen when a pro se party makes 2 a filing -- pro se defendant makes a filing. 3 And there's a number of options that I think we 4 could consider here. One is to deal with or to look at Rule 5 5, which would allow for exempting any service by defendants 6 on defendants. That may or may not work. I think the other 7 thing that we could consider at some point is whether a pro 8 se filing would get some kind of a postcard notice to go out. 9 But that's, I think, a bridge we can maybe have to cross 10 later. 11 THE COURT: Well, this is all in a work in 12 progress stage, is it not? 13 MR. DePAOLI: Yes. 14 THE COURT: All right. I just tell you that the 15 clerk's office would be very accommodating, and I'll do what I can, as well, to work on this issue, about a good way for 16 17 service, both filing and service of documents, and any other 18 questions, whether a website may or may not work. But I can 19 assure you, we will have the cooperation of the court system 20 on this. 21 MS. SCHNEIDER: I appreciate that, Your Honor. 22

There are a couple of other things that we had talked to Ms. Griffin about today as well.

categories of the persons and entities who filed notices of appearance. And we are prepared to give that to the clerk's office, to assist them, because they don't have such a filing prepared, I think, at this point. And we could get it -- we 4 could make it available. We could just file it so that all the other parties have it as well. It would be taken from the information that we have. Certainly there will be 8 mailings that bounce back.

But as we think about moving beyond Magistrate Judge McQuaid's order, number 1300, which is the one limiting service, we need -- that's part of what we have to think about in how we open up and broaden service. So we're prepared to do that.

And it's the same clerk who is working -- same paralegal working on that who I would be asking to put together the -- make sure we have an updated case caption. And she would probably be working on the two together.

I think it's -- if nobody -- she's doing both If there was no interruption, she would probably tasks. do it in about five weeks or so. But knowing my office, there are going to be interruptions for her. So it's going to take her a period of time to get this put together. But it's something that we're prepared to make available to the Court and others once we finish --

THE COURT: So what you're assembling are two different things. One is just a list of all the defendants. 1 2 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct. 3 THE COURT: And now what you're proposing here 4 is a list of those defendants who have responded with the 5 notice of appearance. And we would have their address or 6 e-mail, or whatever information is on that notice; and then 7 those who have not -- who have been served and who have not 8 responded? 9 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct. And I think we 10 also were thinking about making a category of persons and 11 entities who we think have -- for which there are notices of 12 successors. And there may be another category that she was 13 thinking about as well. 14 But I had indicated to Mr. Ferguson and 15 Ms. Griffin that I would be in contact with them as we moved 16 ahead on this, to see if it was -- to see how it could help 17 the Court and the parties. 18 THE COURT: One of the -- sort of a collateral 19 issue to this, something that I was thinking about when 20 Ms. Peterson raised the question about concern about total issue to this, something that I was thinking about when Ms. Peterson raised the question about concern about total finality of any order here. I mean, if somehow the -- as I call it, the Rocking R Ranch slipped through the cracks and never got -- we never knew that they were water rights holder, and never got served with anything, and having them come in down the road and saying we object to this because we

23

weren't served, didn't have notice.

What about doing some type of notice by publication that these lawsuits -- and, Mr. Herskovits, that would probably pertain to the C case too. Something along the lines that notice -- there's a lawsuit pending which affects the water right holders, the Walker River, the Walker River Basin, whatever is an appropriate description, and that the lawsuits are pending. We have served everyone we believe who are bona fide water right holders, and this decree will be final and bind you. If you have not been served, you are obligated, by order of the Court, to contact so and so. Or something along those lines.

And I'm just bringing this up as a consideration as one way to ensure that we have some type of finality, and another way to ensure that everyone is in this case who should be in this case.

MS. SCHNEIDER: I -- thank you, Your Honor. I think that's an excellent suggestion. And it goes beyond what I -- similar to but goes beyond it and gives more detail on what I had been thinking of as well.

It seems to me that in doing the traditional publication, as we have -- you know, we haven't been able to serve so and so, that that publication can be used more broadly.

1 I also think that in -- to accomplish what Your 2 Honor is suggesting. And it also seems to me that that is 3 also something that could be done periodically in conjunction 4 with implementation of Magistrate Judge Leavitt's order, if 5 that's what Judge Reed decides to affirm. 6 And so I -- what I -- so I'm jumping ahead here 7 a couple of items. But what I wanted to suggest to the Court 8 is that United States do -- continue some discussions with 9 the primary defendants about publication but that either this 10 next -- our next status hearing or the one after, that we 11 present you with a proposal on how we would go about doing an 12 initial publication, and see if that meets the Court and 13 parties' approval. 14 THE COURT: Would it be helpful to have a more 15 informal meeting outside of the formal trappings of the courtroom, where we could sit around a conference table and 16 17 discuss it? 18 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think that would be fine as 19 well, yes, Your Honor. 20 I think that what would be helpful -- what I 21 have right now are a number of examples of publication in 22 other cases in this area and also can get ahold of 23 publications that have been done in some water cases. And 24 so I was going to use those examples as a way of putting something together.

```
1 Again, having jumped to publication, when we 2 were talking on the phone; that is the primary parties the 3 other week, we do have an agreement that the newspapers 4 that we would publish in would be the same that are used by the U.S. Board for its annual budget report. So we at least know where we would be publishing it.
 7
                 And then -- obviously, then, the next question 8 is, you know, what exactly we would be publishing.
 9
                 THE COURT: I'm trying to think of the name of 10 the newspaper in Yerington. And Judge Reed would probably 11 kill me by not remembering. Who Walther -- what was it, 12
    Sage -- Mr. DePaoli, help me here.
13
                 MR. DePAOLI: Walther Cox.
14
                 THE COURT: Cox, ves. Okav. So have we -- I 15 think you kind of embraced that idea about some type of 16 notice about this lawsuit that may or may not be legitimate but certainly helps us proceed down that road.
18 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, I agree with that, Your 19 Honor.
20
                 I think it also raises a question that we talked 21 with Ms. Griffin about today, and that is -- and I don't 22 think -- and I think the parties need to talk about this some 23 more and think about it, and that is the sequencing of what 24 we do.
25
                 When the primary parties were talking the last
```

- few weeks, we were focusing on the e-file order. And 1 2 Ms. Griffin has pointed out that that may be a little bit 3 premature, to put that out first. Because once we put 4 that out, the Court is going to be serving everybody. And 5 that would seem to bring an end to the effect of 6 magistrate judge orders, document 1300. 7 And so I think another issue for us to talk 8 about some more is what is our sequence here? And it may 9 be, I think, that publication might come -- would come 10 before that. 11 THE COURT: I would tend to agree. What is your 12 recommendation for the sequence? 13 MS. SCHNEIDER: Right now I'm thinking that 14 publication should come first. But I also want to try to put 15 as many of these different protocols into place, or have them 16 drafted, or close to being drafted, so that matters can move 17 fairly quickly. 18 I also think that an awful lot of what we do 19 maybe would very likely be impacted by whatever order 20 Judge Reed comes down with on the objections that are 21 pending in front of him. That may cause us to back up and do a few different things here. 22
 - I mean, for example, if he sustains Magistrate

 Judge Leavitt's order, then I think that the notice on publication might want to address the issue of successors

1 and identify, you know, if you are a successor, you know, 2 you might want to check with -- you should be checking 3 with your predecessor, to see if they were served with 4 your party, or something like that, that would be a way to 5 flag that.
 6
                 The other thing -- well, it would be nice to 7 do that from the beginning. But if we are talking about 8 doing periodic notices, then certainly that could be done 9 in the future. But it would be better to do it from the 10 start.
11
                 THE COURT: And the sequence after the notice 12 would then come the filing of all the parties in case the 13 notice flushes out some other people? Or would you go ahead 14 and do that and then amend it if necessary?
15
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think I would file -- I would 16 probably want to file -- start out by filing what we think is 17 the current caption and the addresses at the same time that 18 we're working on publication. That probably would go first.
19 Because if there are corrections, then the sooner we get

                             Okay.
22
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: And I -- well, I'm sorry.
23
                 THE COURT: Mr. Ferguson, do you have any 24 comments?
25
                 MR. FERGUSON:
                                No, Your Honor.

                 THE COURT: Where was I -- oh, Mr. Ferguson over 2
           I'm sorry. I meant Mr. Williams. I'm sorry.
    here.
 3
                 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor, I don't.
 4
                 THE COURT: Okay.
 5
                 And, Mr. Ferguson, you had some experience with 6 that, with the Orr Ditch case?
 7
                 MR. FERGUSON: Yes, Your Honor.
 8
                 THE COURT: So I presume your experience in that 9 will be very helpful on trying to figure out something here, 10 what we're doing?
11
                 MR. FERGUSON: Yes, Your Honor.
12
                 THE COURT: Do they do that general type of 13 notice or publication notice that I have talked about?
14 No. Your Honor. Not in the
                 MR. FERGUSON:
15 motion to amend that you're speaking of.
16
                 THE COURT: Mr. DePaoli, did you have something 17 to add?
18
                 MR. DePAOLI: I guess I'm still trying to think 19 about the sequencing issue. And I guess I'm -- I'm focused 20 on two things, really, right now, Your Honor.
21
                 One is how we get to a point where we can 22 finalize or even get a preliminary determination of the 23 threshold issues; and, second, how we can get decided the question of whether answers are going to be required. And I think that, particularly as to the latter, we need to think about that in the context of what we're talking about. 1 2 Because if there's a determination made that answers are going to be required, then there's going to have to be --3 4 people are going to have to be notified of that and given 5 time and opportunity to do all of that. Right now, up to this point, everyone has been 6 7 served with something that says answers are not required 8 and will only be required on further order of the Court. 9 And --10 THE COURT: Could we do something with an order 11 of the Court that says answers are required and those who 12 wish to do so may do so, those who don't file are deemed to 13 just deny the principle averments of the complaint, amended 14 complaints, whatever? 15 MR. DePAOLI: And I think that we have divergent views on whether answers ought to be required at this point. 16 17 I don't think answers should be required at this point. I 18 think that --19 THE COURT: Well, I'm not even suggesting that 20 I'm going along answers are required now. I think that's 21 premature. I think that's for discussion on another day, 22 actually. Because I'm wondering whether some people might 23 have motions that they would want to litigate first, 12(b) 24 motion, perhaps.
25

MR. DePAOLI: I think that's the threshold -- purpose of the threshold issues, really, was to get some of those litigated first.

And in terms of sequencing -- and I understand we need to think about when we do the notice to everyone to elect to receive service under the court system or somewhere else may trigger some other things.

But in order to figure out what it's really going to cost to have a website and to have in place somebody to do postcard notice filings and that sort of thing, it's going to be really helpful to know how many people actually do sign up for the service through the court system.

And so I don't think we have to decide all of this today, but I do think that -- based on the conversation that Ms. Schneider and Mr. Ferguson had with the clerk, that we need to get our heads back together and sort of figure this out in a way that will work for everyone.

THE COURT: Can we defer, then, just to counsel to brainstorm this issue and come back at the next status conference with the report and what the proposals are?

MR. DePAOLI: I think that would be a good idea to do that.

THE COURT: My thought is that we wait on -- as far as sequencing, get this notice done, get this list of who's in this case done. And then maybe we turn to the 2 threshold issues to include whether answers are filed or 3 whether we address first -- do answers, and then identify the 4 threshold issues. But I think that's for another day.

1
 5
                 Is there any other comment on this protocol 6 that we've been discussing about the general notice and 7 clarifying the list of defendants?
 8
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Not on that. There's also the 9 website issue. I don't know whether Your Honor wants to 10 discuss that right now.
11
                 THE COURT: Yes, I would like to.
12
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: We still have been talking about 13 We need to review some proposals that we've a website.
14 gotten. Mr. DePaoli got one from one entity. I have some 15 general information from back when I was trying to put together a website. And I think there are some cost issues
17 that we need to definitely spend some time talking about.
18
                 And we also talked to Ms. Griffin today about 19 a variety of options that we might take a look at as to 20 whether or not -- how we could get information out to 21 parties through the use of website or otherwise.
22
                 I think that there are -- I understand that 23 there are some -- there are potentially some obstacles for 24 the federal court to do it, and we need to explore that a little more and try to understand it. I think that --

1 THE COURT: I think maybe Ms. Griffin might 2 address that issue because right now we might be precluded to 3 giving anyone any more than one-shot look at the documents. 4 Ms. Griffin? 5 MS. GRIFFIN: The Judicial Conference directs 6 that the court's per-page fee, which is your PACER fee, it's 7 eight cents a page. And that is required by the Judicial 8 Conference. 9 I am -- I told Ms. Schneider that I would look 10 into any exceptions to that, or if there have been exceptions 11 made by other courts in the Ninth Circuit, to see if they 12 have cases published on their websites or their external 13 websites without charge. So I will look into that and report 14 back. 15 THE COURT: I like the idea of a website myself. But I can see some obstacles, one of which is who is going to 16 17 maintain it and the cost of doing so and disputes about what 18 information may or may not be on the website. We could also 19 be opening up a huge can of worms. 20 MS. SCHNEIDER: It could be. I think in the 21 long run, it might be helpful to -- for administration of the 22 decree and for any other water management issues in the 23 basin. But that certainly goes beyond the litigation. I 24 think one of the things that we should talk back among ourselves would be the scope of any initial website that

1 | would focus just on the litigation.

My contractors, who unfortunately we can't do the website through the Justice Department, had indicated that they had thought that the initial year would be the most costly, and that simply populating it with documents and dealing with storage in the subsequent years would be a lot -- would be significantly less.

And I think that that's something that -- and that's in contrast to, I think, the proposal that WRID obtained. So we need to sit down and talk about it and maybe see if we want to talk to some other providers or go back to WRID's provider with some additional requests.

But I think we're all looking for something that is as

THE COURT: And I'm sure Ms. Griffin will let you know if she finds out anything in another -- any other federal court cases, perhaps in class action lawsuits or 18 something where this has been utilized.

cost effective as possible.

MS. GRIFFIN: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. SCHNEIDER: Right. And I -- we had looked at -- for it at one point. And I will have to go back and check the notes and files on that to see if we found anything in any other courts. We certainly had found the bankruptcy websites.

But I believe it was Mr. Ferguson pointed out

1 that in working on Orr Ditch, they discovered that there were 2 some exceptions, by rule or statute, for bankruptcy courts to 3 do this kind of thing.
 4
                 THE COURT: You know, Mr. Benesch worked 5 extensively on websites when he was in high school back in 6 the '60s, and he was very clairvoyant and knew what was going 7 on in advance. He could probably do that for you.
 8
                 MR. BENESCH: Not a chance.
 9
                 THE COURT: All right.
10
                 What's your next agenda item?
11
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: We talked about publication 12
              So the next item is to update the certificate of alreadv.
13 service in the three cases. This has been a continuing issue 14 for the Court.
15
                 And I know that people in the clerk's office have done a lot to try to update some of these matters 16 17 recently. There's also some -- when we saw the sheets, I 18 don't know what you call them, but the sheets that were 19 outside the courtroom last time we were here, they had the 20 attorneys in all different categories that weren't 21 necessarily correct.

1 on it. 2 THE COURT: Very good. 3 MS. GRIFFIN: If I might, Your Honor? 4 THE COURT: Yes. 5 MS. GRIFFIN: The challenge to -- there is a 6 potential solution to that. The challenge is that in order 7 to have everyone matched up on the correct side of the aisle, 8 if you were plaintiffs, defendants, counterdefendants, the 9 clerk's office would have to essentially re-docket every item 10 ever, period, in the case. 11 If I were to change the United States from one 12 side of the aisle to the other, you would have to create a 13 whole new entity, United States, file every single document the United States ever filed, and then delete the old United 14 15 States. So the clerk is not in favor of that option. 16 MS. SCHNEIDER: Understandably. 17 THE COURT: It doesn't sound like a palatable option. At least to the clerk's office. 18 19 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes. 20 MS. SCHNEIDER: But I think Ms. Griffin had a 21 suggestion as to how that could be fixed, at least for the 22 Court's use. 23 THE COURT: All right. 24 Any other comments on this subject? 25 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next item is the treatment

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 63 of 80

1 of served defendants who have not filed notices of 2 appearance. 3 It's our position that if we serve people and 4 they didn't file a notice of appearance that that's it. 5 And we think -- and they don't -- neither the United 6 States nor the Tribe nor the Court has any duty to go and 7 find them. 8 Certainly publication, if we -- however we 9 put -- whatever we put in publication notice might give 10 them another opportunity to get involved if they want to. 11 But we do think that we just need something on the record, 12 and we can include this in publication -- in the 13 publication, that persons and entities who did not file 14 notices of appearance are going to be deemed to be -- will 15 be deemed to be -- will be deemed to have -- to be 16 involved in the case but -- and to have received 17 everything, but to have received all the documents even if 18 they haven't filed a notice even if they -- because they 19 haven't done anything. I'm not being very -- I'm sorry. 20 I haven't said that very clearly. 21 But I'm trying to track the language that was 22 used in the C-125-C order that Judge Reed did some time 23 ago that basically said that people who didn't file a 24 notice of appearance would be deemed to be served from thence forth.

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 64 of 80

1 THE COURT: Well, they're deemed to be served 2 because, in fact, service was effected upon them. 3 MS. SCHNEIDER: They were served. And --4 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes. 5 MS. SCHNEIDER: But they have decided not to 6 participate. And they were bound by any of the results of 7 the proceeding. 8 THE COURT: Mr. Herskovits, did you want to add 9 something? 10 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes. I'll just clarify that. 11 I believe that in C-125-C order that Ms. Schneider is 12 referring to, Judge Reed said that defendants who had been 13 served and who do not appear or respond are, nevertheless, 14 deemed to have notice of subsequent orders of the Court or other filings or pleadings in the case. 15 16 So I think that that's what Ms. Schneider is 17 basically requesting in the 125-B case. I think it should be 18 noted that that is an issue that's before Judge Reed right 19 now. 20 WRID has taken a different position with regard 21 to what Judge Reed meant in the order back in 1995. are actually a couple of orders in 1995 in which Judge Reed's 22 23 basically reiterated that point. 24 But essentially if Magistrate Judge Leavitt's 25 order is upheld by Judge Reed, then I think there would be no reason not to do as Ms. Schneider is suggesting in the 125-B 2 case.

 3
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Your Honor, the docket -- 4
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: And I think it only makes sense 5 that if the defendant is, in fact, served the process properly then and does not -- you know, makes the choice not 6 7
    to cooperate or participate and in no way makes any 8 appearance, then I think it's only appropriate that the Court 9 deems that defendant to have notice of further proceedings.
10
                 THE COURT: And that's what you're saying Judge 11
    Reed did in C?
12
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: Yes.
                                        But I -- 13
                 THE COURT: All right. Mr. DePaoli, did you 14 have -- 15
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: -- think that -- I apologize, Your Honor.
16 17
                 THE COURT: No, go ahead.
18
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: I was just going to say that 19 that issue is disputed by WRID. And it's before Judge Reed 20 Whether my description or my interpretation of right now.
21
    what Judge Reed ordered is correct.
22
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Your Honor, the order that I'm 23 looking at, and I finally found it, is document 48 in the C 24 case. And it's paragraph 5 on page 4. And is it says that 25 persons, corporations, institutions, associations, or other
```

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 66 of 80

```
1 entities who waive service or are served who do not appear 2 and respond to Mineral County's Motion in Intervention shall 3 nevertheless be deemed to have notice of subsequent orders of 4 the Court with respect to the motion in intervention, answers 5 or other responses to the proposed complaint-in-intervention 6 or responses to the motion for preliminary injunctive relief.
 7
                 And I think a version of that would be 8 appropriate for application in C-125-B.
 9
                 THE COURT: And what would that go in?
10
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: If I could -- 11
                 THE COURT: Just one second, Mr. DePaoli.
12
                 And if we did agree to do that, what would that 13 go into, another -- 14
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I think we could put it into the 15 order that Your Honor has asked me to draft. But I also think that it could go on -- in the publication too.
16
17
                 THE COURT: I think I would rather address it 18 when we get to the publication issue, rather than the revised 19 order on the Sixteenth Status Report.
20
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: All right.
21
                 THE COURT: Mr. DePaoli, go ahead.
22
                 MR. DePAOLI: Yes. What I wanted to say is we 23 do have a disagreement as to what Judge Reed intended back in 24
    1995. And so 125-C, we'll have to wait to see what he does 25 there.
```

```
1
                 As far as B goes, there really is no need 2 to -- that I can see, to have -- to do anything.
 3 McQuaid before the -- there's a difference between how 4 service progressed in C and D.
 5
                 But before any service started in B, Judge 6 McQuaid, in his orders and in the notice in lieu of 7 summons, specifically indicated that persons were required 8 to -- who were served or who waived service, were required 9 to file a notice of appearance, I believe within 20 days 10 of having been served, and that if they failed to do so, 11 they would nonetheless be deemed to have notice of all 12 future orders of the Court in the proceeding. So that 13 was, if I'm recalling this -- 14
                 THE COURT: Well, isn't that what they're saying 15 occurred in C, as well, and you're just disputing that Judge 16 Reed said that?
17
                 MR. DePAOLI: That occurred --
                 THE COURT: Meant that?
18 19
                 MR. DePAOLI: -- in the -- and Judge McQuaid 20 made that order in C and sometime in -- I've lost track of 21 when that was. But it's sometime in 2000 or 2001 or 2002.
22
                 The argument in C has to do with what -- Judge 23
    Reed and Ms. Schneider read it. Judge Reed said persons 24 shall appear and respond to the motion to intervene.
25 that order started off with a specific date for when a response was due.

So persons -- the time for their appearance and the nature of their appearance was in response to the motion to intervene. That timeframe got changed, got modified, and ultimately got completely done away with in that proceeding, and so the issue is going to be for those people who have never been given a precise date for when they were supposed to respond to the motion to intervene, are they not entitled to any further notice. And that's the difference.

But what Judge McQuaid did in B and what he did in C, beginning in -- sometime in 2000 or 2001, was all people who got served were served with something that says you shall appear within 20 days by filing this notice of appearance; and if you don't, you're deemed to have notice of all subsequent orders of the Court.

THE COURT: Well, what was kind of confusing to me, though, he then went ahead and said in 1300 that the only ones who were going to be served with anything are the attorneys. So what difference did it make, as a practical matter, whether an individual defendant signed that form and sent it back in or didn't. He or she's still not getting any notice.

MS. SCHNEIDER: Well, no, it matters in that they would have -- they sent back waivers of service and that they -- we didn't have to go serve them personally. And at

1 the same time they would have to file a notice of appearance. 2 And the same information, at least a notice of appearance, 3 was given to the people that we ended up having to serve 4 personally. 5 So at this point, I think the issue really is 6 the people we don't have to serve right now are persons 7 who have -- persons and entities who have filed notices of 8 appearance but are pro se. And that's really what we're 9 talking about here. 10 And then the other group of people we're 11 talking -- the other category that we started to talk 12 about here, were people who were served who -- or even 13 people who waived service, who did not file notice of 14 appearance. 15 I think, though, that based on what Mr. DePaoli has said, it sounds like we're in agreement on 16 17 what should be done here. I need to go back and take a 18 look at the service package that was sent out. I didn't 19 think that it stated everything as strongly as Mr. DePaoli 20 just stated it, but I will go back and double check and 21 report to the Court at the next status conference on that. 22 And Your Honor had also said you wanted to leave that 23 issue go, anyway, until we got into publication. 24 THE COURT: That's correct. So is there 25 anything else we need to address on this -- or that the Court

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 70 of 80

1 needs to decide or give you guidance on on this particular 2 topic at this time? 3 MS. SCHNEIDER: It sounds like nothing at this 4 time then, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: We've been going for a little over 6 an hour and a half. I don't want to kill our court reporter 7 here. 8 Ms. Reporter, do you need a recess? 9 THE COURT REPORTER: No, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: All right. Well, then, why don't we 11 proceed then. 12 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next item is the status of 13 the order limiting service pending completion of service. 14 We've already talked about this item. So I think we can move 15 on. The next was just any other notification 16 17 protocol issues. I don't know of anything else, and I had 18 nothing else on item three. 19 THE COURT: Anyone else on item 3-H? 20 All right. Please proceed, Ms. Schneider. 21 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next item number four is the 22 status of the objections that are pending before Judge Reed. 23 We've already addressed that, that they're still pending. 24 And then the next issue on number five was just 25 to flag some of the upcoming issues.

 3
    But they really aren't issues that I think we need to resolve

                 THE COURT: One of which was the filing of an 6 answer, when answers need to be filed, which Mr. DePaoli 7 raised earlier.
 8
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: That's correct.
 9
                 THE COURT: All right. Is that -- it would seem 10 to me that we don't identify the threshold issues unless and 11 until we get the service issue done and out of the way.
12
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Correct, Your Honor.
13
                 THE COURT: Which is what the CMO said anyway.
14
                 MS. SCHNEIDER:
                                 That's correct.
15
                 THE COURT: All right. And we're not going to 16 address today, or make a ruling today, either, as to when 17 answers are going to be required, or whether answers are 18 required, or might be some other type of Rule 12 motion or 19 something.
20
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor.
21
                 THE COURT: Is there anything else under item 22 5-B?
23
                 MS. SCHNEIDER:
                                 I have nothing under -- nothing.
24
                 THE COURT: Does anybody else wish to address 25 anything else on item 5-B?

1
                 Ms. Schneider, please proceed.
 2
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: The next item would be the 3 briefing and resolution of Mineral County's motion. And that 4 certainly is premature to talk about that today too.
 5
                 But, again, that's Mr. Herskovits' case.
 6
                 MR. HERSKOVITS: We would agree that it's 7 premature at this point to be addressing that. Obviously 8 that can't go forward until service is complete.
 9
                 THE COURT: All right.
10
                 Does anybody else have anything to address on 11 item 5-C?
12
                 Item number six I believe we addressed earlier 13 under item three, I believe.
14
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: There's only -- 15
                 THE COURT: Is there anything else that will come forward on this issue?
16
17
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Excuse me, Your Honor. Yes, 18 there was one other issue. And we talked to Ms. Griffin 19 about it as well.
20
                 As the Court probably knows, there are problems 21 with doing e-filing these days, that when anybody files a 22 document that, for some reason, a group of other parties are attached as being the filers. And we had been told in my 23 24 office that this was supposed to have been fixed in a 25 software upgrade in February. But it didn't fix it.

Case 3:73-cv-00128-MMD-CSD Document 588 Filed 03/23/2012 Page 73 of 80

1 And so my understanding, from talking to 2 Ms. Griffin, is the problem's ongoing, everybody knows about 3 it, and that we should just simply understand that there 4 won't be any fix anytime soon, but that the court's aware of 5 it. THE COURT: Ms. Griffin, I don't think I 6 7 understand the problem sufficiently. Could you elaborate. 8 MS. GRIFFIN: When one files in CM/ECF -- when 9 the attorney files a document in CM/ECF, he or she would 10 select the parties to whom that document would -- I mean, who 11 they are representing as the attorney. And then it would 12 populate as part of the docket entry. Then your document is 13 It's filed under the case file for you to see. attached. 14 What the -- we got upgraded. We moved into a 15 new CM/ECF. Mandatory. We had to do that. And one of the 16 problems, of which the Administrative Office is very well 17 aware, is there's a glitch with cases that came in from older 18 And this, of course, happens to be an older case, 19 so it came in from an older system. 20 Now, if Ms. Schneider, for instance, were to 21 file a document, it says she's filing it on behalf of all the 22 parties. So since there's lots and lots of parties, they 23 make for pretty voluminous case filings. The quality control department in the clerk's 24 25 office goes through, after the filing is made, and cleans up the docket sheet to reflect what they believe is the correct 1 2 filing, which would be Ms. Schneider is filing on behalf of 3 the United States, to remove all those extra parties. 4 that tomorrow you would look at the docket sheet, and the 5 docket indication would be as correct as the clerk could make 6 it. 7 But the initial filing comes through -- when the 8 notice of electronic filing goes through to all of the other 9 attorneys, it comes through, erroneously, that she is filing 10 on behalf of all of the parties. 11 There is an MRN. It's part of the national 12 system. We're hoping that it gets fixed in the next 13 version. But we are not optimistic. 14 THE COURT: MRN? 15 MS. GRIFFIN: An MR is a -- it's a request for -- a modification request in a computer system. 16 17 THE COURT: Okay. 18 MS. GRIFFIN: And our local dictionary 19 specialist is aware of it. And she will work on it. So if there's anything we can do locally, she's very good. 20 21 THE COURT: And who is that? 22 MS. GRIFFIN: Amber Freeman. 23 THE COURT: Oh, Amber. 24 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes. 25 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Schneider?

1 MS. SCHNEIDER: I have nothing else on item six. 2 And I have nothing else on the agenda. 3 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. DePaoli or Mr. Ferguson, do either of you 4 5 have anything to add? 6 Does anybody else on the telephone have any 7 other issues to address? 8 MR. HERSKOVITS: No, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: I'm debating whether to set a time 10 now for the next status conference or to wait and see what 11 happens on Judge Reed's rulings. But I'm thinking that maybe 12 we do another status conference at this time, if that's the 13 usual procedure how it's done. Are they typically reset at 14 the time of the last status conference? 15 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. What I might suggest is that the Court set a status conference perhaps six 16 17 to eight weeks out, maybe six weeks. And perhaps it could 18 simply be a telephone status conference with the Court, for 19 the parties just to check in on where matters are and to 20 notify the Court of how -- of what progress we've made at 21 that point on the notification protocol and any other issues. 22 THE COURT: You know, if you do make progress on 23 this notice by publication that I've been talking about, I'd 24 almost like to have a telephonic status conference earlier on 25 Because it seems to me that might be one of the things that we should accomplish as soon as possible so we can 2 complete that service list.

1
 3
                 So if you, maybe, could move that to the head of the line of things to be done in this case. And then if you 4 5
    wanted to have that informal conference, we can do that by telephone, if you like. Of course, notify everybody if they 6 7 wanted to participate. But just to discuss some preliminary 8 issues on that, if that arises, I'd be happy to assist. And 9 if that's causing problems or would not be productive, don't 10 do it.
11
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.
12
                 I think that's -- how we would proceed there 13 is something I would want to talk to the other -- to the 14 defendants about and to Mr. Williams. And if we could get 15 back to the Court if we see that there's something we could do in a timely manner. Would that be how you would 16 17 want to proceed?
18
                 THE COURT: I would. But, I think, let's go 19 ahead and get a six-week date out because everyone's 20 calendars are going to be filling up right away anyway.
21
                 THE CLERK: Your Honor, Wednesday May 9th, at 22
    1:30 p.m.
23
                 THE COURT: Does anybody have any problem with 24 that date?
25
                 All right. The next status conference will be

1 Wednesday, May 9th, at 1:30 p.m. 2 And you are going to get me a revised order. 3 First you're going to circulate it among the parties for 4 the Sixteenth Report, Ms. Schneider? 5 MS. SCHNEIDER: Your Honor, could I do two 6 orders; one just dealing with the Sixteenth Report, and one 7 dealing with the other matters? 8 THE COURT: You know, just as you mentioned it, 9 I think that's a good idea. 10 MS. SCHNEIDER: Okay. 11 THE COURT: Can we -- is this the existing 12 proposed report? 13 MS. SCHNEIDER: It is, Your Honor. In fact, that could stand by itself. 14 15 THE COURT: I mean, the order? MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes. 16 17 THE COURT: Can I just sign this order then? 18 Does anybody have any problem with the language other than 19 has been addressed already? 20 All right. I will go ahead and execute document 21 1689 which will -- when filed, will be a different case 22 number. 23 MR. DePAOLI: Your Honor, sorry. I thought that 24 we were going to maybe change that to alert these parties to 25 the fact that, although they're being dismissed now, there's a chance that they might -- 2

1
                 THE COURT: I think Ms. Schneider is going to do 3 a letter to them. But do you want to change the language in this proposed order to say that although they have been dismissed, they are subject to being re-called?
 5
 6
                 MR. DePAOLI: This is the order that deals with 7
    the folks who have the non -- the transient non-community 8 water systems. The letter was to deal with the -- 9
    Ms. Rosachi and Walker General I think.
10
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: I would be fine to do that.
                                                              Ι 11 forgot about what Mr. DePaoli has suggested. What I can do 12 is give the Court modified proposed rule -- order on Report 13 Sixteen, that includes the suggestion that Mr. DePaoli had.
14
    And then deal with everything else in a separate order.
15
                 THE COURT: Does anybody else care to look at that revision before it gets filed?
16
17
                 Then, Ms. Schneider, I didn't hear any comment.
18
    Why don't you and Mr. DePaoli just work out the language and 19 submit a revised proposed order that will just address that 20 Then you're going to do another proposed order that subject.
21 should be circulated among everybody about these other 22 matters that we've addressed today.
23
                 MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor.
24
                 THE COURT: And I appreciate your doing that.
25 Thank you very much for your assistance. That is very

Is there anything else to come before the Court?

MS. SCHNEIDER: Will Your Honor also want to 4 have a proposed agenda before the next status conference?

THE COURT: Do I want to have one? Yes.

MS. SCHNEIDER: Okay.

THE COURT: We will continue with the agenda before. And that's very helpful to me because I can become more familiar with the documents that are relevant to those agenda items. And it's my understanding that you work with other counsel to formulate that agenda?

MS. SCHNEIDER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Does anyone have any problem with that? Because it does seem to be how things were done in the past. And we'll continue that protocol.

Now, is there anything else?

MS. SCHNEIDER: Nothing, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Very good. Thank you, all. Very informative hearing on a very interesting but complicated case. And I continue to try and get up to speed on it. Work in progress. We'll be in recess. Thank you.
