IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

IN THE MATTER OF SPACE) REQUIREMENTS FOR THE)
UNITED STATES DISTRICT) COURT.)

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 20

On June 3, 1977 this Court formally requested from the Administrative Office of the United States Courts additional space for law library purposes.

On December 6, 1978 the Administrative Office of the United States Courts submitted a formal request for said space to General Services Administration.

As of the date of this order the Court has been unsuccessful in obtaining from General Services Administration the additional space necessary for the Honorable Harry E. Claiborne and is now faced with a distress situation.

Therefore, in order to provide Judge Claiborne with adequate supporting space,

IT IS ORDERED that the space presently utilized for visiting judges, rooms numbered 3-025 and 3-027, is hereby assigned to the Honorable Harry E. Claiborne.
