UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

IN RE PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT) TO THE SENTENCING REFORM )
ACT OF 1984 )
_____ )

SUPPLEMENT TO
TEMPORARY SPECIAL ORDER NO. 66

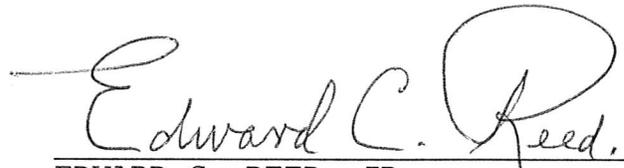

On August 23, 1988 a divided three-judge panel of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals held the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 unconstitutional. Jose Gubiensio-Ortiz v. Al Kanahale, No. 88-5848 and United States v. Raul Chavez-Sanchez, No. 88-5109. Although that decision could be subject to a rehearing en banc, the court's ruling in Gubiensio-Ortiz, supra, constitutes the law of the Ninth Circuit regarding the constitutionality of the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, which this court is bound to follow. However, because a similar constitutional challenge to the Act is currently pending before the United States Supreme Court which may further impact on the manner in which cases arising under the Act are treated, this court concludes that no immediate modification of the procedures provided for under Temporary Special Order No. 66 are required. Therefore, in an effort to provide a degree of continuity between the rules of this District governing proceedings pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, §3551, et seq. and the prior law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that First Amended Temporary Special

1 Order No. 66 shall continue in effect pending further order of
2 this court;

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States Probation
4 Office for the District of Nevada shall affix an addendum to each
5 presentence report which shall include such additional matters
6 relevant to sentencing, including confidential recommendations,
7 as would have been submitted pursuant to the law and rules of this
8 Court which governed sentencing prior to the Sentencing Reform Act
9 of 1984.
